Pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26(f) and LR 26-1, the parties submit the following proposed Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order. Any extension to these deadlines will be made pursuant to Local Rule 26-3.

1. Pursuant to FRCP 26(f) and LR 26-1, a telephonic meeting was held on November 9, 2023, and was attended by Michael G. Saldana, of Fisher & Phillips, LLP, counsel of record for Defendant and James P. Kemp, of Kemp & Kemp, Attorneys at Law, counsel of record for Plaintiff.

1 2. Discovery Cutoff Date: Defendant filed its Answer on September 23,
2 2023. The discovery period will close on Thursday, March 21, 2024, which is 180 days
3 from the date of the 26(f) Conference.

4 3. Amending the Pleadings and Adding Parties: The date for filing
5 motions to amend the pleadings or to add parties shall be on or before Friday, December
6 22, 2023, which is 90 days prior to discovery cutoff.

7 4. Expert Witness Disclosures: The disclosure of any expert witnesses
8 shall be made on or before Monday, January 21, 2024, which is 60 days prior to the 9 discovery cutoff. The disclosures of any rebuttal experts shall be due on or before 10 Tuesday, February 20, 2024. The requirements of F.R.C.P. 26(a)(2)(B) shall apply to 11 any such disclosures.

12 5. Dispositive Motions: Dispositive motions shall be filed by Monday,
13 April 22, 2024, which is 32 days after the discovery cut-off date (as the 30th day is 14 Saturday, April 20, 2023).

15 6. Pretrial Order: The Joint Pretrial Order shall be filed by Wednesday,
16 July 26, 2024, which is 30 days after the dispositive motion deadline. However, in the 17 event that dispositive motions are filed, the date for filing the Joint Pretrial Order shall 18 be suspended until 30 days after a decision on the dispositive motions or further order of 19 the Court. The disclosures required by Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3), and 20 any objections thereto, shall be included in the Joint Pretrial Order.

21 7. Initial Disclosures: The parties will make their Initial Disclosures by 22 November 20, 2023, to allow additional time due to the upcoming holidays. No changes
23 in the form or requirement for such disclosures are necessary.

24 8. Discovery Subjects: The parties may conduct discovery within the scope
25 of Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26(b). Subject to the foregoing, discovery need not 26 be limited or focused on particular issues or conducted in phases.

28 ///

9. Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”): The parties do not foresee any issues with the production of Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”) at this time. The parties agree to engage in ongoing meet and confer discussions if disputes arise concerning the phrasing of search words or other methodology for the production of information responsive to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, as well as the formats in which structured and or unstructured ESI may be produced. Defendant anticipates that a Stipulated Confidentiality and Protective Order may need to be entered given the likelihood of discovery involving confidential information and/or information relating to other employees who are not parties to this litigation.

10. Protection of Privileged/Trial Preparation Material: The parties prefer to handle these issues on an ad hoc basis as issues arise, but the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B) and Federal Rules of Evidence 502 shall apply.

11. Assignment to a Magistrate Judge: The parties certify that they met and conferred about the possibility of using alternative dispute resolution processes, including mediation, arbitration and early neutral evaluation. The parties further certify that they considered consent to trial by a magistrate judge under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 73 and use of the Short Trial Program (General Order 2013-01). The Parties have been ordered to participate in the Early Neutral Evaluation program on December 1, 2023.
